4. Any staff, workers or other parties are strongly encouraged to report any concerns or suspicions that they might have to the Managing Director.
5. Reports surrounding these issues are taken extremely seriously by our board of directors, who are committed to ensuring that all investigations shall be prompt and effective. If our investigations reveal any issues, we are committed to taking appropriate action, including but not limited to:
 - Working with the appropriate organisations to improve standards,
 - Removing that organisation from our preferred supplier list,
 - Passing details to appropriate law enforcement bodies.
6. We regularly monitor our risks in this area through the use of relevant key performance indicators, including:
 - The percentage of suppliers who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements,
 - The percentage of [workers and/or candidates] supplied from audited businesses / our preferred supplier list,
 - The effectiveness of enforcement against suppliers who breach policies,
 - The amount of time spent on audits, re-audits, spot checks, and related due diligence, and
 - The level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff.

7. As part of our efforts in this area, we publish a modern slavery statement on an annual basis.
8. We would also recommend reading this in conjunction with our other policies, including our:
 - Whistle-blowing policy.
 - Recruitment Policy.
 - Data Protection Policy.
 - Privacy Policy.

This policy was adopted on the year of 22/23 after being agreed by our board of directors. It is reviewed annually

3 Our Processes for Managing Risk

In order to assess the risk of modern slavery, we use the following processes with our suppliers:

- When engaging with suppliers, we ask for evidence of their processes and policies, including commitments around modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour, human rights, and whistle-blowing.

After due consideration, we have not identified any significant risks of modern slavery, forced labour, or human trafficking in our supply chain. However, we continue to be alert to the potential for problems.

Additionally, we have taken the following steps to minimise the possibility of any problems:

- We reserve the right to conduct spot-checks of the businesses who supply us, in order to investigate any complaints.
- We collaborate with our suppliers in order to improve standards and transparency across our supply chain.
- Only senior members of staff who have undergone appropriate training for assessing modern slavery risks in the supply chain are authorised to sign contracts and establish commercial relationships in any area where we have identified the potential for risk.
- We ensure that all of our suppliers are members of appropriate industry bodies and working groups.
- We work with home office in order to combat the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking.

Our staff are encouraged to bring any concerns they have to the attention of management.

4 Our Performance

As part of monitoring the performance of Lanes Recruitment Ltd 'The Lanes Group' we track the following general key performance indicators:

- The level of training amongst your staff,
- The speed with which you investigate related complaints, and the effectiveness of any whistle-blowing procedures, and/or
- The level of compliance and transparency you have established in your supply chain.

Based on the potential risks we have identified, we have also established the following key performance indicators, which are regularly assessed by our board of directors:

- the percentage of suppliers who sign up to an appropriate code / provide their own modern slavery statements
- the percentage of workers and candidates supplied from audited businesses / our preferred supplier list
- the effectiveness of enforcement against suppliers who breach policies
- the amount of time spent on audits, re-audits, spot checks, and related due diligence
- the level of modern slavery training and awareness amongst our staff

We benchmark our indicators against industry best-practice, in order to ensure that we do not put undue pressure on our suppliers that might increase the potential for risk.
